To Buy Reliable Merchandise at Half-Price

To-morrow ushers in the second week of the Great Pre-Inventory Clearance Sale at the Thalheimer Store; a sale in which remarkably low prices prevail; a sale in which every department participates. This week eclipses last week in that we're offering bigger bargains, better bargains, and more of them; for we've determined that every stock must be radically reduced, and that quickly. To accomplish this result extraordinary cutting of prices has been steadily going on, until the very price tags themselves are severed. Read every word of this ad and shop at Thalheimer's this week. If you don't you'll be doing yourself an injustice.

Durham Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Durham, N. C., January 21.—One of the prettiest parties of the week was that at which Mrs. Harris King entertained on Saturday afternoon, in honor of her house guests, Miss Fay Henry, of East Orange, N. J., and Miss Mary Walker, of Richmond. The house was most attractive with its simple, but lovely decorations of white narcissus, tulips and lilies were the garnishes of the afternoon. Enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. King and the guest of honor, were Mesdames Ralph Jones, Marion King, W. R. Guthrie, L. C. Brooks, B. S. Skinner, R. L. Feltz, Frank Brown, W. O. Bramham, Will Holman, J. W. Pierce, Winifred Holman, W. D. Carmichael, W. T. Host, E. G. Munc, V. A. Erwin, E. B. Lyon, W. R. Boyd, F. C. Fuller, G. H. Beall, A. H. Stokes, Leon Jones, J. E. Stagg, T. M. Goran, E. L. Tree, and Meses Eleanor Green, Jean Venable, Mattie Lehman.

Lillie Christian, Kate Taylor, Annie Long, Kathleen Turrentine, Nomi Carrington, Sallie and Louise Glass, Susie Cox, Rosa Green, Sallie Beavers and Miss Young.

The Up-to-Date Club was entertained in a most charming manner on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. J. M. Manning at her home on Dillard Street. The club is studying French history. In the absence of Mrs. W. H. Branson, who had prepared a paper on the "Reign of Joseph II," Mrs. Julia Sasser read an article on the "Life of Isabella," which was followed by a paper by Mrs. S. W. Venable, on "Leopold's Famous Palace." At the close of the program a beautiful luncheon was served in the dining-room. The table at which the guests were seated was centered with a lovely arrangement of white carnations and ferns.

The "Tourists" were the guests of Mrs. J. S. Carr, Jr., at her lovely home on Main Street, which was abloom with potted plants and crimson carnations.

Mrs. J. S. Hill, the president, presided. Mrs. W. A. Erwin gave a delightful talk on the "Social and Industrial Life of Turkey," after which Mrs. V. S. Bryant read a splendid paper on "The Harem." The program closed with an interesting reading by Mrs. I. F. Hill, from "Haremlike."

Miss Annie Louise Vaughan entertained the Electric Club at her home on Dillard Street, Wednesday afternoon. Following a delightful literary program, a delicious five-course luncheon was served. The guests were Misses Lila Wright, Louise Carr, Eleanor Green, Lottie Sharp, Rosa Green, Lida Vaughan and Roberta Henshaw.

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club was charmingly entertained this week by Miss Eleanor Green at her home on Chapel Hill Street.

Tuesday evening Mrs. R. V. Brooks gave a beautiful reception at her home in West Durham, in honor of Miss Fay Henry, of East Orange, N. J., and Miss Mamie Walker, of Richmond, who are the guests of Mrs. Harris King. The house was bright and attractive with quantities of graceful ferns and carnations, while glowing fires in the grates added beauty and cheer to the scene. It was a most delightful affair and thoroughly enjoyed.

Misses Annie Louise and Lida Carr Vaughan, Miss Roberta Henshaw and W. L. Faushee, chaperoned by Mrs. P. W. Vaughan, enjoyed a week-end party at Leech Lily, near Roxboro. The Durham party was joined at Roxboro by several friends who had planned a lovely program for their pleasure during their sojourn at the lake.

There was an interesting meeting of the Lee-Jackson Chapter, the children's branch, of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Saturday morning at the home of Miss Elizabeth Jones, of Morrice Street, to commemorate Lee's birthday. The "Aftermath of Lee" was the subject of the paper read by Miss Elizabeth Jones, which was followed by another paper, entitled, "Sketch of Lee's Life and War Campaign," by Miss Lucile Pearce. Miss Annie Cobb recited "Lee's Sword," after which was an exciting alphabetical contest on Lee's life. Miss May Fallon captured the prize, a picture of Lee as a soldier, which she very gracefully presented to the chapter.

On Thursday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. there was a most interesting meeting of the J. S. Carr Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, to celebrate Lee's Birthday. The program was an unusually interesting and delightful one, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of women in attendance.

Miss Susie Hitt, of Norfolk, is the guest of Mrs. Marion King, at her home on Parish Place.

Miss Margaret Boylan, of Raleigh, who has been visiting in Norfolk, is visiting Miss Louise Carr.

Wilmington Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wilmington, N. C., January 21.—There was little doing with Wilmington society this week, and two entertainments of the North Carolina Sorosis held the centre of the stage. The regular social session of the Sorosis took place yesterday afternoon, and was marked by a large attendance of members and friends, and a number of most delightful features. The music department of the society held forth today ahead, giving a most attractive and charming affair. Mrs. W. A. French, chairman of this department, presided, and Mrs. R. C. Merritt was the leader of the social meeting. The program included papers read on music's history in different countries, and some superb selections. Those who took prominent part in rendition of the exercises were Mesdames R. G. Grady, J. W. Yates, John Schonwald and H. O'Keefe and Miss Lucy McIntosh.

The Woman's Missionary Society, of Grace Methodist Church gave an entertainment Tuesday afternoon, which proved a most delightful event, as a pleasing program was presented and delicious refreshments were served.

Robert Braswell, of this city, arrived Wednesday night with his bride, formerly Mrs. Carrie Williams, of Emporia, Va., and they are now at home to friends at 504 Ann Street. Mr. Braswell and Mrs. Williams were married in Emporia Wednesday morning.

Among the chief events for society next week is the January dance of the T.A.C. German Club, which will take place next Wednesday night.
